

For Immediate Release
July 30, 2009

Media Contact:
Jay Stecher
(757) 362-4400
jay@stechermarketing.com

MOVIE TAVERN OFFERS FLAPJACK FAMILY FUN

WILLIAMSBURG, VA. July 30, 2009 – Movie Tavern, an eight-screen, dine-in cinema located in the heart of High Street, offers family fun with Flapjack and a Flick on Saturday mornings at 9am.

Moviegoers can enjoy all-you-can-eat pancakes, select drinks and a family movie for one great price. Prices are $10 for adults and $8.50 for children. When 3D films are shown there is an additional fee of $2 per ticket.

About Movie Tavern:

Movie Tavern combines the enjoyment of movies with an in-theatre dining experience. A menu of Classic American favorites is served to Movie Tavern guests while they enjoy first-run films in state-of-the-art auditoriums. In addition to first-rate cinema viewing, Movie Tavern also offers a variety of special event opportunities and services. For more information and movie times, visit <http://www.movietavern.com>.

About High Street:

High Street Williamsburg was designed as a mixed-use development offering retail space, apartment homes, condominiums, and townhomes. Beautiful streetscapes and traditional architectural style unify the neighborhood's homes, storefronts and a central plaza with outdoor dining terrace. The Movie Tavern, showing first-run movies, offering upscale bar, and table service anchors the village. For more information, please visit High Street's website at <http://www.highstreetwilliamsburg.com>.

###