NEW DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS COMES TO STERLING MANOR

WILLIAMSBURG, VA. June 25, 2009 – Holly Hunt has recently joined Roseland Property Company as the Director of Operations for Sterling Manor Apartments. She will be responsible for all day-to-day operations management, marketing, resident relations, financial reporting, and staff supervision. Holly has over five years experience in property management and is a fourteen-year resident of the Williamsburg area.

Prior to joining Sterling Manor, Hunt was the Assistant Property Manager with Signature Management in Williamsburg.

“My favorite things about Sterling Manor are the amenities. Residents can enjoy our state of the art fitness center, theatre room, billiards room and resort style pool,” says Hunt. “Shopping, dining, and entertainment are just beyond your front door.”

Sterling Manor Apartments is currently 96% leased. With 191 upscale apartments, Hunt will continue to raise the bar on service at this luxury apartment community.

About High Street

High Street Williamsburg was designed as a mixed-use development offering retail space, apartment homes, condominiums, and townhomes. Beautiful streetscapes and traditional architectural style unify the neighborhoods of homes, storefronts and a central plaza with outdoor dining terrace. The village is anchored by the Movie Tavern, showing first-run movies and offering beer, wine and table service. For more information, please visit High Street’s website at <http://www.highstreetwilliamsburg.com>.

About Sterling Manor
